

Flight Inquiry Details

- Departure From: Singapore
- Destination: Turkey
- Trip Type: Round-trip
- Trip Duration: 5
- Dates to Search: Sunday, 06 July 2025 to Saturday, 12 July 2025
- Cabin Class: Economy
- Direct Flights: Yes
- Number of Travellers: 1

Top 3 Best Results

1.

Depart: Thursday, 10 July 2025 from SIN to ADB

Flight: 09:10 to 18:20 (Total: 14h 10)

Stops: 1 (IST)

Return: Monday, 14 July 2025 from ADB to SIN

Flight: 13:00 to 07:30+1 (Total: 13h 30)

Stops: 1 (IST)

Approx Price: $1,342

Click here for link.

2.

Depart: Friday, 11 July 2025 from SIN to ADB

Flight: 09:10 to 18:20 (Total: 14h 10)

Stops: 1 (IST)

Return: Tuesday, 15 July 2025 from ADB to SIN

Flight: 23:00 to 17:55+1 (Total: 13h 55)

Stops: 1 (IST)

Approx Price: $1,398

Click here for link.

3.

Depart: Wednesday, 9 July 2025 from SIN to ADB

Flight: 23:10 to 8:10+1 (Total: 14h 1 st)

Stops: 0 (None)

Return: Sunday, 13 July 2025 from ADB to SIN

Flight: 23:00 to 17:55+1 (Total: 13h 55)

Stops: 1 (IST)

Approx Price: $1,546

Click here for link.

Suggested Travel Plan (Choice: 1)

Absolutely! I'd be happy to help you plan an exciting and detailed itinerary for your trip to Izmir (ADB) from Thursday, July 10, 2025, to Monday, July 14, 2025.

Izmir is a vibrant coastal city in Turkey with a rich history, beautiful beaches, and lively markets. I'll provide you with a day-by-day itinerary, focusing on must-see attractions, activities, dining, and unique experiences.

—

Day 1: Thursday, July 10, 2025 – Arrival and Exploring Central Izmir

- Arrival at Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport (ADB):

- Depending on your arrival time, take a taxi, shuttle, or private transfer to your hotel in the city center (Kordon area is a good choice for proximity to attractions).

- Check-in & Refresh:

- Arrive at your hotel, check in, and freshen up.

- Late Afternoon/Evening:

- Kordon Promenade: Start with a leisurely stroll along the Kordon, a beautiful waterfront area, where you can enjoy the breeze, views of the Aegean Sea, and colorful buildings lining the street.

- Dinner at a Seafront Restaurant: Dine at one of the charming seafood restaurants along the promenade. Try grilled fish or a classic Turkish seafood dish like midye dolma (stuffed mussels).

- Sunset at Kordon: If the timing works out, the sunset views here are stunning. Watch as the sky turns shades of orange and purple.

- Optional:

- Visit Konak Square: Explore this lively square and see the Izmir Clock Tower, a landmark dating back to 1901, and Konak Pier, a beautiful historical building.

---

Day 2: Friday, July 11, 2025 – Ancient Ruins and Vibrant Markets

- Morning:

- Breakfast at the Bazaar: Start your day with a delicious Turkish breakfast at a café near Kemeraltı Bazaar, İzmir's historic market.

- Kemeraltı Bazaar: Wander through this bustling market area, one of the oldest and largest open-air markets in Turkey. You'll find shops selling spices, jewelry, textiles, and local sweets. It's also a great place to grab souvenirs like Turkish Delight.

- Late Morning:

- Kadifekale (Velvet Castle): Head up to this ancient castle for panoramic views of the city. Kadifekale dates back to the Hellenistic period and is a great spot for history buffs. There are ruins to explore, but it's the view that steals the show.

- Lunch:

- Try Local Cuisine: Enjoy börek (savory pastries), lahmacun (Turkish pizza), or kumru (a sandwich native to İzmir) at a local restaurant.

- Afternoon:

- Ephesus Day Trip:

- If you're up for a half-day trip, head to Ephesus, one of the most well-preserved ancient cities in the world (about 1 hour 15 minutes by car). Explore the Celsius Library, the Great Theatre, and Temple of Artemis (one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World).

- If you prefer to stay local, you could visit Agora Open Air Museum and the Museum of History and Art in İzmir.

- Evening:

- Dinner in Alsancak: Alsancak is a trendy neighborhood for dining and nightlife. Opt for a local tavern or modern restaurant with fusion Turkish cuisine.

- Night Out: If you're in the mood for a lively night, visit some of the rooftop bars in the Alsancak area for cocktails with views of the city and sea.

---

Day 3: Saturday, July 12, 2025 – History, Relaxation, and Exploration

- Morning:

- Breakfast at Café Torta: Try a traditional Turkish breakfast with eggs, cheese, olives, tomatoes, and fresh bread.

- Izmir Archaeological Museum: Visit this fascinating museum to see exhibits from ancient civilizations, including artifacts from Ephesus and Pergamon.

- Midday:

- St. Polycarp Church: Explore this important Christian site in Izmir, dedicated to one of the earliest Christian bishops, St. Polycarp.

- Lunch:

- İzmir Köfte: Try İzmir Köfte, a delicious grilled meatball dish at a local restaurant. Pair it with pide, a type of Turkish flatbread.

- Afternoon:

- Çeşme (Optional Day Trip): If you're up for more adventure, take a 1-hour drive to Çeşme, a charming coastal town known for its beaches, seaside dining, and Çeşme Castle. You can relax on the beaches of Alaçatı, a picturesque spot popular with surfers and sunbathers.

- Or, relax at Konak Pier: Alternatively, spend the afternoon exploring Konak Pier, a historical harbor, or relax in one of Izmir's parks like Atatürk Forest.

- Evening:

- Güzelbahçe Bay: Enjoy a more relaxed evening by visiting Güzelbahçe, a quaint district with seaside views and peaceful vibes.

- Dinner at a Traditional Restaurant: Sample menemen (scrambled eggs with tomatoes and peppers) or manti (Turkish dumplings) for dinner.

—

Day 4: Sunday, July 13, 2025 – Pamukkale and Hot Springs

- Morning:

- Early Start for Pamukkale: Depart early for a day trip to Pamukkale (around 3 hours from Izmir). This natural wonder, also called "Cotton Castle," features dazzling white terraces created by hot spring deposits. The thermal waters are rich in minerals, offering both a scenic and relaxing experience.

- Midday:

- Explore Pamukkale and Hierapolis: In addition to the terraces, visit the Hierapolis Ancient City, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk along the ancient ruins, including the Roman Baths and the Grand Theatre, and dip into the warm waters of the Antique Pool.

- Lunch:

- Lunch at Pamukkale: Enjoy a local meal at one of the restaurants in the area, offering dishes like köfte (meatballs) or gözleme (Turkish flatbread stuffed with various fillings).

- Afternoon:

- Relax in the thermal pools and take photos of the unique white terraces of Pamukkale. Then, head back to Izmir in the late afternoon.

- Evening:

- Leisurely Dinner at Alsancak: Enjoy dinner at a cozy restaurant in Alsancak, and unwind from the day's adventure. You could also grab a coffee and pastry in one of the cafes.

—

Day 5: Monday, July 14, 2025 – Last Day in Izmir

- Morning:

- Breakfast at the Hotel or a Local Café: Have a relaxed breakfast before heading out.

- Visit Kadifekale (Velvet Castle) (Optional): If you haven't already, visit Kadifekale for the panoramic city view.

- Midday:

- Last-Minute Shopping: Head back to the Kemeraltı Bazaar or Alsancak for any last-minute shopping and souvenirs.

- Relax at a Café: Grab a Turkish coffee at Kahve Dünyası or any other local café before your departure.

- Departure: Depending on your flight time, head back to Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport for your return flight.

—

Additional Tips:

-Transportation: Use taxis or public transport to get around the city. You can also rent a car if you want more flexibility, especially for day trips.

-Weather: July will be warm, so pack light clothing, sunscreen, a hat, and sunglasses.

- Language: Turkish is the official language, but English is widely understood in tourist areas.

—

This itinerary gives you a perfect blend of history, relaxation, culture, and adventure. If you need further adjustments or have any preferences (e.g., food, specific interests), let me know! Have a fantastic time in Izmir! 😊